NARRATIVE:

Torres has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 22 and includes convictions for multiple domestic battery, possession of a firearm by a felon, exhibit a deadly weapon, disturbing the peace, possession of narcotic controlled substance and receiving stolen property. Torres has served multiple state prison terms; two (2) 16-month terms for possession of a firearm by a felon and possession of narcotic controlled substance. Torres was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on April 11, 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in June 2013 after Torres absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Torres qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of a firearm by a felon is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
